

Specialty Coding:

Profession Codes available for this specialization

Specialization Card: Master's in Comparative Jurisprudence (Fiqh) and its Foundations

Level: Master's

Domain: Humanities and Social Sciences

Field: Islamic Sciences - Sharia

Specialty: Master's in Comparative Jurisprudence (Fiqh) and its Foundations

1- Training Location:

Faculty: Faculty of Islamic Sciences

Department: Sharia

Decision Qualification Reference: No. 002 dated 03/01/2021.

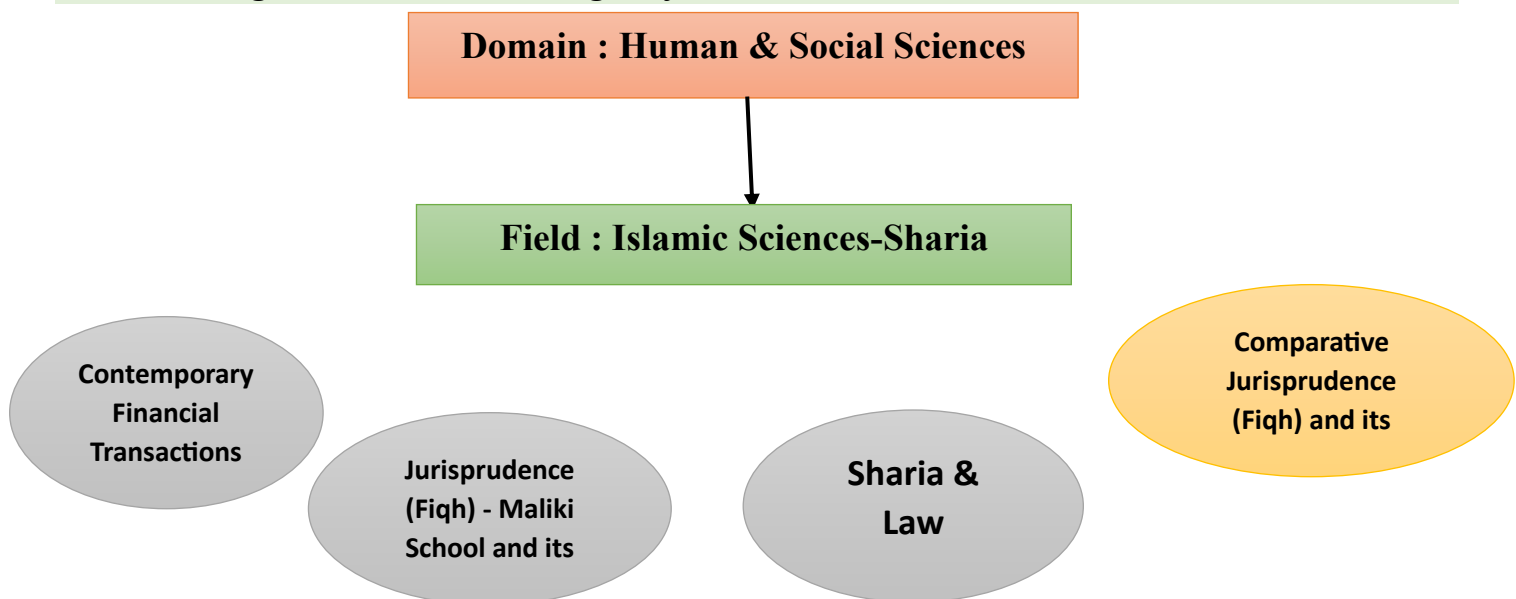

2- Other Participants:

Partners from other Academic Institutions: Emir Abdelkader Constantine University, M'sila University, El-Wadi University.

Other institutions, social partners, and economists: Al Salam Bank, Al Baraka Bank, Islamic windows in traditional banks.

Foreign international partners: Islamic banks in Islamic countries, Islamic windows in foreign banks, AIOFI (Accounting and Auditing Organization for Islamic Financial Institutions).

3- General Organization of the Training: Project status

4- Training Content and Context:

The Master's in Comparative Jurisprudence and its Foundations offers students an important program that addresses various aspects of jurisprudence and extremism. It provides a comprehensive curriculum on comparative jurisprudence and its principles, clarifying everything related to sources, principles, schools, and programs.

5- Training Objectives:

This Master's program aims to present jurisprudence for all Islamic doctrines, as well as the principles of jurisprudence in its different schools and curricula. The objectives include:

- Understanding the rules of Sharia.
- Acquiring knowledge of the foundations of jurisprudence in its different schools and programs.
- Understanding the different jurisprudential doctrines.
- Acquiring knowledge of contemporary jurisprudential and extremist opinions and comparing them with the efforts of previous scholars.

6- Targeted Training Competencies:

The program of this Master's degree supports students with the necessary scientific and pedagogical foundations for learning jurisprudence.

7- Local, Regional, and National Employability Capacities:

Graduates of this specialization can find employment opportunities in the academic sector, education departments, religious affairs departments, institutes for imam training, and consultative committees (El Ifta).